Prayer to the Holy Family:

O most loving Jesus, who did hallow by your surpassing virtues and the example of your home life the household you chose to live in while upon earth, mercifully lookdown upon this family, whose members, humbly prostrate before you, implore your protection. Remember that we are yours; bound and consecrated to you by a special devotion. Protect us in your mercy; deliver us from danger; help us in our necessities; and impart to us strength to persevere always in the imitation of your Holy Family so that by serving and loving you faithfully during this mortal life, we may at length give you eternal praise in heaven.O Mary, dearest Mother, we implore your assistance, knowing that your divine ‘ Son will harken to your petitions. And do you most glorious patriarch, Saint Joseph, help us with your powerful patronage and place our petitions in Mary’s hands, that she may offer them to Jesus Christ.Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I give you my heart and my soul. Jesus, Mary,and Joseph, assist me in my last agony. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, may I breathe forth my soul in peace with you. Amen.

A Christmas note from Fr Seán:

A Mass of Thanksgiving will be celebrated in the Cathedral today for the Jubilee Year. We all have so much to be grateful for as this Jubilee draws to a close. The parish celebrated the year by organising several events including a Corpus Christi procession, a Day of Prayer in November and Mass at the Rock in Kildoagh. The highlight of the year had to be the celebration of Mass on St Mogue's Island on a blustery day in August. It was wonderful seeing the whole community come together and work hard to ensure that the event was a wonderful success and it will certainly live on in the memory of those who attended. If we take happiness from God's hands, must we not take sorrow too. The parish also experienced some difficult days. People had to live without power for days in the aftermath of Storm Éwoyn. Many families lost loved ones and some left us all too soon. We keep in our prayers those who are grieving the loss of a loved one this Christmas. But on these dark days, it was great to see the community come together and support one other.

Personally, I wish to thank you for your friendship and generosity throughout the year. I also wish to acknowledge those who keep the parish ticking over daily. I'm thinking of people like the sacristans, choirs and musicians, Parish Pastoral Council, Parish Finance Committee, liturgy committee, Altar Societies, all the readers and Eucharistic ministers, Altar Servers, the money counters and collectors and all those who keep the parish finances in order. I thank those who look after our cemeteries and produce the weekly newsletter. I thank the teachers and Boards of Management of our schools. We look forward to welcoming Bishop Martin to the parish on January 30th. He hopes to meet as many parishioners as possible throughout the day and acknowledge all the hard work of our parish volunteers.

I wish to thank everyone who participated in our Christmas ceremonies and who made them special. I thank those who set up cribs and decorated the churches and ensured that they are looking beautiful for Christmas.

As we thank God for the blessings we received from his hands throughout the Jubilee Year, we also look forward to what 2026 will bring, trusting that the Lord will be with us through it all. I wish you and your families every blessing, health and happiness for 2026 and pray that the Holy Family will guide and bless you throughout the year.

Fr Sean.

New Year's Ceremonies: The final event of the Jubilee Year of Hope here in the parish will take place in St Mogue's Church, Bawnboy, on New Year's Eve, with Mass of Thanksgiving in honour of Our Lady at 11pm, followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Guided Prayer and the hour will conclude with Benediction at 12 Midnight, as we invoke God's Blessing upon us for the New Year. Mass for the Feast of Mary, the Mother of God and the World Day of Prayer for Peace will take place at 12 noon on New Year's Day in St Mogue's Church, Bawnboy.

Give Hope This Christmas with Double the Love: Mary's Meals provides life-changing school meals to more than 3 million children living in some of the world's poorest communities. The promise of a good meal brings hungry children into the classroom, where they can gain an education and better opportunities for the future. It costs just €22 to feed a child with Mary's Meals every day for a school year. Thanks to the Tom Cunningham Trust, donations will be doubled until 12th January 2026 or until the match funding limit has been reached. Together, through Double the Love, we can transform the lives of many more desperately hungry children waiting for Mary's Meals. To donate, go to www.marysmeals.ie or phone 01 853 5163. Every donation is greatly appreciated. Thank you.
