Island Theatre, Ballinamore - A Bunch of Amateurs - Breffni Players 17 Jan 2026. Get ready for an unforgettable night of laughter, drama, and pure comedy as the Breffni Players bring you the smash-hit play A Bunch of Amateurs by Ian Hislop and Nick Newman. This not-to-be-missed production follows fading Hollywood action hero Jefferson Steele, who is desperate to revive his flagging career. When he eagerly accepts an invitation to play the mighty King Lear in Stratford, he imagines red carpets, fine theatres, and Shakespearean prestige. Instead, Steele finds himself in a sleepy Suffolk village, surrounded not by celebrated stars but by an enthusiastic band of local amateurs determined to put on the show of their lives. Book tickets online islandtheatre.ie

Reflection: The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord is a liturgical bridge that connects the Christmas season to Ordinary Time. During the Christmas season we pondered the Incarnation, Nativity, Presentation in the Temple, and Epiphany. Today, we see Jesus manifesting Himself to the world as He began His three years of public ministry. As we commemorate Jesus' baptism liturgically, we celebrate the fact that our Christian baptism was the beginning of this new unity with the Holy Trinity.

Prayer: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, You came to me in my baptism and united me in my fallenness with You in Your divinity. I pray that I will continuously be aware of all that divides us and will never grow weary of repenting of my sin. I do repent once again, dear Lord. I beg for Your mercy and forgiveness and open myself more fully to You, Your Father, and the Holy Spirit. Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I trust in You.
