

A word from Fr Seán Maguire As I begin a new chapter in Kinawley, I would just like to thank the parishioners of Corlough-Templeport for your kindness and support to me over the last seven years. Seven great years of my life was crowned last weekend by a wonderful function in the Templeport Resource Centre. I will be forever deeply indebted to the Parish Pastoral Council and all the local community groups who came together to organise the gathering. I thank everybody who took part in the Masses last weekend. There was a lovely atmosphere at all the Masses. I thank those who designed the leaflets, led the prayers and the readings and the beautiful reflection on the life of a priest. I appreciated the three choirs who enhanced the liturgies last weekend with their uplifting music. I thank the Corlough liturgy group for their altar display on the seven sacraments. The altar cloth front was also a special touch. I was bowled over by the amount of people who attended the tea party in the Community Centre. It was a very joyous occasion and I hope you all enjoyed catching up with your neighbours and friends. I do not underestimate the amount of planning and time that went into making the day such a success and for that I am deeply grateful. I thank the community centre committee, all those who set up the hall and those who served tea and tidied up afterwards. I thank everybody who baked lovely treats for the occasion. I also thank those who played Irish traditional music which added to the occasion. I was deeply touched by the amount of thought that went into all the gifts that were presented to me last weekend and they are lovely mementos of my time in the parish which I will cherish for many years to come. From the bottom of my heart, I wish to thank everybody for your generosity. It was a very emotional weekend for me and my family and we are very grateful to you all. I will endeavor to keep the people of my neighbouring parish of Corlough-Templeport in my prayers and no doubt our paths will cross many times over the coming years.

Night prayer of St Augustine of Hippo (Feast - 28th of August)

Watch, dear Lord, With those who wake or watch or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep.
O Lord Jesus Christ, tend your sick ones, rest your weary ones, bless your lonely ones, soothe your suffering ones, shield your joyous ones, and all for your love’s sake. Amen.

Parish Pastoral Councils As we prepare for the renewal of our Parish Pastoral Council this autumn, we continue our weekly series exploring the role, purpose and importance of the council in the life of our parish.

Your Gifts Matter

The Parish Pastoral Council depends on people who are willing to listen, reflect, and serve the wider community. As we approach the time of renewal, please consider how you could contribute to the life of your parish by being a member of your Parish Pastoral Council. Even taking the step of coming along to an information evening is a great way to begin. Details of the dates, venues, and times of these information evenings will be announced in the coming weeks.

Cemetery Maps: All of the cemeteries in the parish have been surveyed. Please go onto www.irishgraveyards.ie and select the cemetery that you are interested in. A photograph of each grave in the parish can be found on the website.

Sincere thank you to Elizabeth Baxter and Ann Marie McTeggart for the many hours they put in going through the church records and compiling the information. The map will be updated every three years. Please contact them if you notice any errors or omissions.

St Mogue's Church, Bawnboy - The map is available on the wall at the back of the church.

St Patrick's Church, Kilnavart - The map can be viewed in the porch and it will be erected at a later stage outside. Thanks to Colm Heery, Margaret Geoghegan and Pat Murry for their assistance in compiling the information. If you notice any errors or omissions, please contact them.
